Awakened, written by James S. Murray and Darren Wearmouth, is a story that involves a big fear of mine: underground subways. It may be the claustrophobia talking, but there is something I just can't handle when it comes to dark tunnels full of nothingness, bugs, and more that could just come collapsing down at any moment.

Awakened (Awakened #1) by James S. Murray

This story is the first in The Age of Expansion, the time AFTER Bethany Anne has left the area where the Etheric Empire has been battling and kicking Kurtherian Ass. The time when the Etheric Empire is changing to the Etheric Federation and all of the good times that entails.

All children are associated with age-group organizations, and the Swazi 641 boys are placed into war regiments and tribute labor teams that are called to work for the king four times a year. At the core of Swazi communal life are praise singing and poetry. Almost every event calls forth a poem or a praise song about a person or phe-nomenon.
