Hi Folks, this is my first post here at the CNC Zone, although I'm an active member on a couple of other machinist websites. I've been doing hobby machining for about 3 years now. A couple of months back, I acquired a Bridgeport Interact 1 Mk 2 with TNCL150 controller. I've since acquired another one in better overall condition with a TNCL151B (I think -- how do I tell if it's an A or B?).
