This review will cover both Book 1 and Book 2 of the series (are there any others coming?) I really liked "Coming Home," the first in the Baxter Springs series, because even though it was obvious from the start that Ben and Chase would take the friends-to-lovers road, author Avery Ford got us down the road without condescension or too much angst.

The storyline for Coming Out is a dual one: A woman's twin teenaged daughters' invitations to a "coming out" ball (somewhat like a debutante presentation), and her son's "coming out" by announcing he is gay at the "coming out" ball. Along the way, one of the twins refuses to attend the ball, the other one loves the idea, her five year old son ...

Baxter Springs Series by Avery Ford - Goodreads

We can hear the pitchforks coming out right now. But hear us out. Baxter Stockman deserves to be #2 on this list. Baxter has been around in every single version of the TMNT as a primary villain. Yes, he serves as a lackey for the Shredder most of the time. But even then, Stockman only obeys out of fear of the vile leader.
