That's a sheet from an NFL Style Guide that I recently scored on eBay. Unlike other styles guides in my library, this one isn't from a particular year — it's a mix of materials, mostly from the mid-'80s through the early '90s. The guide's previous owner was an NFL licensee, and he'd just add updated spec sheets to the multi-ring ...

Coaches once reigned with poise, exhibiting leadership through style, class and self-expression. Suits and ties were the norm, and a tasteful fedora felt right at home under the floodlights. As the 2015 NFL season gets underway, there's no better way to pay tribute to a bygone era of sport style than by pairing classic looks from legendary coaches with modern interpretations.
